

RECEPTION DESKS

For a Great Office Experience.

WELCOMING IN EVERY WAY

The reception desk plays a key role in a company's lobby or showroom, in offices where customers are received, as an information point in open spaces or as a counter in doctors' surgeries or law firms' offices. It extends a welcome to visitors and represents the corporate culture, yet is also a workplace with ergonomic requirements. The range of reception desks from Greenforest offers everything you could ever need, and as such is able to perform both these functions to perfection.
